

MTC MEDIA RELEASE

START/

“Hi-Ho – Ringtone – Its Back to School I Go”

WINDHOEK, 12 January 2010 – Quickly following on after the recent exclusive Christmas specials, MTC has lined up yet another special offering for its loyal customers, this time continuing the special on the Nokia 2330, for the ‘Back to School’ period.

Customers lined up at Mobile homes over the festive period to get their hands on the MTC Christmas offerings, and will again be able to take advantage of this fantastic deal on modern technology until the 15th February when the offer comes to an end.

The Nokia 2330 comes with 2G network, vibration, MP3 ringtones, speakerphone, GPRS and Bluetooth technology. Radio and camera ability is a standard feature on the sleek design from the popular and trusted Nokia brand. This user-friendly and versatile mobile phone is an affordable option that appeals to both young and old alike.

The Nokia 2330 will be sold including a N$5 starter pack and an additional N$200 Free Money voucher for the special price of only N$499.

“MTC’s special offering is part of our continued commitment to offer affordable but high-tech products and services to our loyal public. We continue to insist that our customers are our primary consideration and we believe in offering them exciting product deals as we walk along this path of technological innovation,” said MTC’s Managing Director, Miguel Geraldes.

End...

Http//: www.mtc.com.na

MTC Namibia

MTC (Mobile Telecommunications Limited) was established in 1995 as a joint venture between Namibia Post and Telecommunications Holdings (NPTH), Telia and Swedfund. During May 2004, NPTH concluded a deal that saw it hold 100% of the shares in MTC by acquiring the 49% held by Telia Overseas AB and Swedfund International AB. NPTH is 100% owned by the Government of the Republic of Namibia. On 1 September 2006 the sale of 34% of MTC shares to Portugal Telecom (PT) was concluded with the management contract also ceded to PT.

Editorial Contact:

Abelene Heuer
0811002073
aheuer@mtc.com.na