

17th July 2018

Windhoek

DUE TO POPULAR DEMAND – 081EVERY1FEST TO SELL ONLY 200 VIP TICKETS FOR N$1000

Following high public demand, for VIP ticket, festival organizers have released 200 block tickets for purchase at N$1000 per ticket, Show Executive Producer Tim Ekandjo, announced on Tuesday, 17th.

Explained Ekandjo, “Ever- since we announced this line- up we have been inundated with request to avail a VIP ticket for purchase – as opposed to our original idea of strictly invitation. We have heard the cries - and 200 tickets will now be available for purchase at N$1000 per person”.

Tickets are until stock last, and are available in-store at web tickets outlet in Pick n Pay or online at www.webtickets.com.na

The show takes place on 11 August 2018, at the Sam Nujoma Stadium, and boast a rich collection of international and local superstars – expected to perform for an estimated crowd of 15, 000 people. Beside the VIP ticket, generals tickets cost remains N$25.

Meanwhile Coke Namibia, has come on board, with the purchase of a two donation tickets valued at N$20 000. The donation ticket is not an access ticket to the show – but simply a charity ticket – displaying your support to the cause of affordable housing.

Expressed Maguire Mulder, Marketing Manager at Coke” we are honoured to be part of this magnificent event – but more so we are thrilled to know that our support is going towards the worthy cause of supporting the less privileged and share in the feeling of open happiness.

Corporates are called upon to emulate Coke by buying donation tickets. A donation ticket cost is between N$10 and N$10 000.

The international roaster in-cludes Davido, Runtown, Jah Prayzah, Heavy K and Busiswa and the local roaster includes a galore of Namibian Annual Mu-sic Awards (NAMAs) winners namely, Gazza, Kalux, Oteya, KP Illest, Sally Boss Madam, Adora, One Blood, PDK, Afroberries and 4x4 Too Much Power.

The 081Every1Fest is an charity concert initiated by MTC is to celebrate 100 percent popula-tion coverage, with the proceeds going to the Shack Dweller’s Fed-eration of Namibia (SDFN).