

11 July 2018

Windhoek

081EVERY1FEST SELLS 5000 TICKETS IN WEEK ONE

Start//

The much anticipated 081Every1Fest has sold over 5000 tickets in just one week. Chief Human Capital & Corporate Affairs Officer, Tim Ekandjo, reported at the launch that only 15000 tickets will be made available. With 5000 tickets gone, and about 2500 that will be allocated to invited VIP guest, we are left with only about 7500 tickets and selling fast. The public is urged to secure their tickets in advance as no tickets will be sold at the gate.

“We have worked on a comprehensive safety and security plan that will see more than 4 security companies deployed to ensure the safety and security of all Fest-goers in addition to the Namibian Police Force and other law enforcement agencies”.

General tickets sell for only N$25. This is a charity show, and we therefore encourage members of the public and corporates to buy donation tickets. Donation tickets can also be purchased at Webtickets and can cost anything between N$10 to N$10,000. Ekandjo explain that there is a difference between a donation ticket and the actual show ticket. The actual show ticket allows you access to the Fest while a donation ticket is simply your personal donation to the charitable cause whether you are attending the Fest or not.

The 081Every1Fest will see musical heavyweights like Davido, Runtown, Gazza, Sally, Busiswa, Heavy K, Jah Prayzah, Kalux, PDK, Oteya, Adora, KP Illest, Afroberries and 4x4 Too Much Power for Namibia’s biggest and most affordable musical fest to date.

End//

Issued by: Corporate Affairs Department