

FANTASY FOOTBALL FAQs

What is Fantasy Sport?

Fantasy sport is a game in which subscribers choose a team of real players from featured teams each match day. Points are earned based on the actual performances of the players in real-world matches. Each fantasy team's points are tracked on the leader board in real-time. The fantasy teams with the most points on the final leader board wins.

What is a Match Day?

A match day is day on which real-world matches are played in the supported leagues. Match days are scheduled as often as possible based on the various league's fixtures.

What is a Competition?

There are two types of competitions:

Daily Competitions

Daily competitions consist of featured real-world teams. Contestants pick players from these teams to build their own fantasy team, to compete against other subscriber fantasy teams. A leader board tracks each team's performance in real-time throughout the competition. Winners earn prizes based on their position on the final leader board. Daily competitions are run every match day.

Multi-match day competitions

Multi-match day competitions are competitions that are run over a pre-determined time period (e.g. week, month, season, etc.). All daily competitions that occur within the time period are automatically included into the multi-match day competition. The total points of each subscriber's teams that compete in these daily competitions, are accumulated and tracked on a multi-match day leader board. Grand prize(s) are awarded to the top performing fantasy team(s) at the end of the competition period.

How do I enter my team?
